Event Venue: KIMS DU Karad

In order to let the students stay rooted with Indian culture, KIMS DU celebrates various festivals on campus... Ganesh Festival is one of it...

Ganesh Chaturthi is one of the most celebrated festivals in India. The event has been held continuously for many years.

The festival is celebrated according to the Hindu calendar on the 4th day of the Bhadrapada month, which falls in late August or early September. It is celebrated for 05 days.

The multi-talented students of KIMS DU start preparations for decorations with glittery papers, beautiful flowers, attractive decoration pieces proper lighting arrangements.

The first process of Ganesh Chaturthi is bringing idol of lord Ganesh.

With loud chants and traditional drum beats, the deity is brought to the place where he stays for next 05 days.

Modak – his favorite, sweets, flowers, etc. are offered to him every day.

Once that done do get a 'pujari' to do the puja on time before moving on with the other celebrations revolving the festival.

These 5 days were filled with grand 'aartis', delicious prashad and lots of blessing from 'Ganpati Bappa'. Rangoli is an important part of this festival and this is done in the doorways.

On 5th days, last day of the Ganesh Chaturthi festival traditionally dressed KIMS DU students and staff with 'Fhetas' participated in Ganpati immersion rally.

In the sound of 'Dhol' and 'Taasha' KIMS DU immersed its Ganesh idol. This ritual is known as Ganesh Visarjan. Students are well aware about their social responsibility.

We immersed the idol in the water.... These 5 days were indeed the most enchanting days on the campus.

Teachers' Day is a special day for the appreciation of teachers, and may include celebrations to honor them for their special contributions in a particular field area, or the community in general. When some of his students and friends approached him and requested him to allow them to celebrate his birthday, he said, "instead of celebrating my birthday separately, it would be my proud privilege, if 5th September is observed as Teachers' day". From then onwards, the 5th of September has been observed as Teachers Day, in India. Teacher's day was celebrated by the Faculty of Allied Sciences on 5th September 2017.
